

4 January 2016

Dear Clients, Partners and Employees of AMarkets,

it is our privilege to inform you about our successful partnership with AMarkets. As per concluded partnership agreements, X Open Hub provides AMarkets with technology and liquidity solutions which are among the most innovative and competitive solutions currently available on the FX and CFDs market.

We are glad to partner with such a reliable, professional and dedicated company. Our cooperation is based on shared belief in an open trading environment and dedication to deliver superior technology and services to our clients, simply offering the best of the best when it comes to trading.

As we are at the beginning of another year and move forward we hope that we continue to reap more success in the years to come.

Wishing all stakeholders of AMarkets a year full of innovative ideas and quick execution of all dreams.

Sincerely,

Michał Copiuk
CEO of X Open Hub

